

Financial Policies

The registration fee must be paid at the time of registration and is non-refundable and non-transferable.

Book and Supply fees for returning students must be paid by June 5th of the coming school year. New student book and supply fees must be paid before starting school. Book and supply fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.

Discounts are available to families with two or more children enrolled in the School. Current tuition and fee schedules, as well as, detailed information concerning discount opportunities are available in this packet.

For accounts not paid in full by August 15, a monthly payment plan option is utilized. Families must make monthly payments by the 15th of each month for ten months. Monthly payments begin August 15 through May 15. The School office is available to answer any questions regarding an account.

When an account becomes two months overdue, students will not be permitted to attend classes until the account is brought within one month of being current. Students who miss classes due to financial reasons will be counted absent but will be excused and will be permitted to make up work upon their return to school. Families whose accounts are consistently delinquent may not be given the opportunity to utilize the payment plan option in subsequent years.

Student records cannot be released for students whose family accounts are not current at the close of the school year or upon the student's withdrawal from the School.

In the case of early withdrawal, student will owe tuition for the month in which he/she withdraws. All other fees are non-refundable.
