Thank you!—Last weekend we had the privilege of hosting the BCSO state basketball tournament. It was a blessing to see how many parents, friends, staff, and students gave of their resources, time, and energy to produce a well-run tournament. A number of coaches and parents from visiting schools appreciated the friendliness of our folks and the way the tournament was handled. Your labor of love was a wonderful testimony to the Lord.

Grandparents' Day--This Friday, March 3, grandparents of our 1st-12th grade students will be on campus to enjoy lunch with their grandchildren and to visit in the classrooms. The annual science fair and art fair will be on display in the gym. The afternoon will conclude with the presentation of science and art awards and performances from the high school choir and tone chime choir.

BCSO—Students in 7th-12th grade will be traveling to Cleveland to participate in the annual fine arts competition March 9-10. Our choir and choral groups as well as the tone chime choir will be performing. A number of students are also entered in speech, solos, duets, quartets, photography, art, crafts, woodworking, and metal working. Additionally, we have both a Bible quiz team and a general knowledge quiz team. Please pray for our students that they will perform well and honor the Lord.

End of 3rd quarter—The third grading period ends next Friday, March 10. Report cards will be issued March 20.

Auction—The PTF school auction is almost here! Please make your plans to attend. If you have items to donate, please contact Mrs. Terry Hanusik, or the school office.

Elementary basketball—Registration forms for Junior Crusader Basketball were sent home yesterday. This program is for students in 2nd-6th grades. If you have any questions, please contact Miss Junod.

Calendar change—The dates for the spring play will be moved to a week later to May 5-6. Performance times will be the same: Friday at 7 p.m. and Saturday at 6 p.m.

First day of school—The first day of school for the 2017-2018 academic year is Monday, August 21.
